YOU ARE
Joshua Vogel

The Seattle Architect Who Builds in Asia

Vogel is an architect of international fame. His firm —Baker Vogel Roush—leases offices in Smith Tower but Vogel is often away, working with clients in Japan and China. An engineer and architect, his practice combines Asian aesthetics with western construction techniques.

OBSERVATORY EXPERIENCE

YOU ARE Joshua Vogel

FIND A STORY AROUND EVERY CORNER.

1. Find the business offices. Where is your architecture practice based?
2. Find your stenographer's desk. What's her name?
3. Listen to line 1 in the switchboard room. Where is your client from?
4. Explore the map. What's the name of the Seattle apartment building you designed?
5. Find the Observatory. What new field do you become interested in?

Share any correct answers with an Observatory staff member for a reward.
