OBSERVATORY EXPERIENCE

The Man Who Knows Smith Tower Inside and Out

Smith Tower is the swankiest business address in Seattle—and it takes a lot of behind-the-scenes hustle to keep it that way. Dykes manages every system in the building, from all eight elevators to the steam heat and even the telephone exchange. Oh, and he handles the occasional daredevil, too.

YOU ARE Robert Dykes

FIND A STORY AROUND EVERY CORNER.

1. Find your desk in the business offices. What do you have to deal with?
2. Find the pavement lights. What does your crew keep burning in the subbasement?
3. Listen to line 3 in the switchboard room. Why are you worried about Mink De Ronda's stunt?
4. Explore the map. Where do you live?
5. Find the Observatory. Did you retire?

Share any correct answers with an Observatory staff member for a reward.
