

PALM MOUNTAIN RESORT & SPA APPOINTS STEVEN BOSWELL AS GENERAL MANAGER

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (November 6, 2018) – Palm Mountain Resort & Spa is pleased to announce the appointment of Steven Boswell as general manager. In this role, Boswell will oversee daily operations of the downtown Palm Springs resort.

Boswell brings more than 18 years of experience working in hospitality to Palm Mountain. Most recently, he served as the regional managing director of multiple hotels in the southwest region, including The Nautical Beachfront Resort and Tivoli Lodge. Previously, Boswell was the general manager of Lake Arrowhead Resort and Spa, which earned an AAA Four Diamond rating under his leadership.

“Palm Mountain Resort & Spa is a terrific property in the heart of Palm Springs, and I am excited to join the team,” said Boswell. “I look forward to bringing my love for the travel and hospitality industry to the hotel and vibrant local community, while continuing to offer our guests an exceptional experience.”

Boswell will succeed Tim Ellis, a fixture of the travel and tourism community in Palm Springs. After 36 years in hospitality, Ellis has decided to retire from his celebrated career in hotel management but will continue his close ties to the greater Palm Springs tourism industry in his new position as managing partner of TravelHost magazine.

“Steven’s hospitality expertise and leadership will be a huge asset to the team,” said Ellis. “He has an incredible track record with some of the best resorts in the country and will bring a wealth of knowledge to our beautiful hotel. I know I’m leaving the property in great hands.”

Palm Mountain completed a multimillion-dollar renovation in 2015 and today offers 142 graciously appointed rooms and suites, many with balconies and views of the San Jacinto Mountains. The Spa offers a relaxing escape for guests, complimented by a perfectly chilled pool with sunning terrace, hot tub and fire pits. The Resort’s indoor event facility and spacious outdoor patio offer the perfect place to entertain guests in a warm and inviting atmosphere. Palm Mountain is managed by Seattle-based Columbia Hospitality, Inc.
