

South Sound BIZ

MARCH 2018

'i'll always love you, pierce county'

A fond farewell to area's longtime economic—development director

PEOPLE ON THE MOVE

ADDITIONS

■ Procura Mortgage Company has added Heidi Randall as assistant vice president and senior mortgage loan originator for its Tacoma office. Randall comes to Procura Mortgage Company with more than 20 years of experience in the mortgage industry.

Randall

■ Tacoma's JayRay branding and public relations firm has added Leigh Kolb as an assistant advisor. Kolb most recently worked in creating content, marketing strategy, and recruitment programs for Adaptive Sports Center and Oh Be Joyful Church.

Kolb

■ Cedarbrook Lodge in SeaTac has announced the appointment of Adam Stevenson as executive chef. Stevenson will lead the food and beverage team at the boutique hotel, including overseeing Copperleaf Restaurant as well as Cedarbrook's private events, catering, and group businesses.

Stevenson

■ Lacey Hatch, who for 10 years represented Bellevue as senior assistant city attorney and senior legal planner, has joined the Olympia-Tacoma law firm of Phillips Burgess. She will focus her practice in the areas of municipal law, land use, and environmental law and litigation. A Gig Harbor resident, Hatch has nearly 15 years of municipal law experience. In addition, partment of Early Learning Director Heather Moss to serve on the Bates Technical College Board of Trustees. Prior to joining the Department of Early Learning as the deputy director in 2014, Moss was the deputy director at Child Care Aware of Washington. Her previous experience in Washington state government includes serving nine years as a research analyst with the Joint Legislative Audit and Review Committee, and another five years as both a budget and policy analyst for the Office of Financial Management. She has also worked as an adjunct faculty member of The Evergreen State College.

Hatch

Moss

■ TrueBlue, Inc. has announced that Maggie Lower has joined the company as chief marketing officer. Lower comes to TrueBlue from Alight, a $2 billion global benefits administration and cloud-based HR business. As CMO, she helped Alight by bringing the brand to market after its spinoff from Aon Hewitt, where she previously served as senior vice president and head of global marketing.

Lower

■ Banner Bank has added Dan Bogart as senior vice president and commercial division manager, leading teams focused on the South Sound and Eastside. Bogart has more than 32 years of banking experience, with an extensive background in commercial lending.

Bogart

Lori Jackson have joined the Kent Station office; Meredith Saxon is now in Gig Harbor; Deborah Walker has joined Puyallup; and Frank Cusumano has been added to the office in Tacoma.

■ Orthopedic surgeon Dr. Melissa Kounine will soon join the staff of Washington Orthopaedic Center in Centralia and Olympia. She has a background in total joint replacement and minimally invasive procedures.

■ Shelley Drury has been named a shareholder at Tacoma accounting firm The Doty Group. With nearly 20 years of public accounting experience, Drury focuses on business valuation and litigation support, with specialties including business valuation, pension and social security valuation issues, personal economic loss calculations, and fraud investigation.

Drury

■ Tacoma's DP&C has named CPA Zach Parsons a shareholder. Parsons, who currently provides client service, started at DP&C in 2008.

Parsons

■ Tacoma public radio station KNKX has announced it has hired Steve Albertson as its very first director of administration. Albertson will oversee the organization's human resources, financial, risk management and administrative functions, and serve on the KNKX Management Team. For the last two years, Albertson was director of instructor resource management at Xerox Corporation.

Albertson